A Settlor is an Individual/entity that provides the Source of Wealth and/or Source of Funds for the Trust. The party who creates a Trust by a written Trust Deed is called a Settlor (or may sometimes be referred to as a Trustor, Donor or Grantor). The Settlor usually transfers the assets into the Trust; this can be at inception or during the life of the Trust. There may be one or many Settlers.

Trustee:

The Trustees of a Trust exercise control over the Trust property. A Trustee may be a natural person or a legal entity. Control is defined as a power (whether exercisable alone, jointly with another person or with the consent of another person) under the Trust Deed or equivalent or by law to:

- Dispose of, advance, lend, invest, pay or apply Trust property;
- Vary the Trust's structure;
- Add or remove a person as a Beneficiary, or to or from a class of Beneficiaries;
- Appoint or remove Trustees; or
- Direct, withhold consent to, or veto the exercise of any of the above powers.

Control over the assets in the Trust is held with the Trustees but can be constrained by the terms of the Trust to operate within certain limits. Limits can cover all aspects such as a requirement to hold a real asset (property) or deposit funds with a specified custodian.

Note: In some cases, another party may exercise control; such as a Trust Protector or a Settlor who retains significant powers over the Trust property either directly or indirectly (such as the power to replace the Trustee).

Beneficiary:

A Beneficiary is any person, class of persons, legal entity (e.g. a Corporate) or Trust (e.g. Charitable Trust) who receives a distribution of assets or income from a Trust. In some instances, the Beneficiary may or may not be aware of their entitlement. A Beneficiary may be an Intermediate Beneficiary (IB) (an entity) or an Ultimate Beneficiary (UB) (a natural person) who is the Ultimate Beneficial Owner (UBO) of the IB.

For the majority of Trusts, there will be clearly identified Beneficiaries or a class of Beneficiaries (e.g. unborn grandchildren). Usually, Beneficiaries or the Class of Beneficiaries are documented in the Trust's Deed or equivalent.

Protector:

A Trust Protector is a party or parties appointed by the Settlor to exercise one or more powers affecting the Trust and to protect Beneficiaries from a rogue Trustee.

Trust Protectors can often make changes to a Trust, involving addition/removal of Trustees, investment decisions, change distributions and, in some cases, modifications to or termination of a Trust.
