Definition and Explanation of Key Terms:

Person Purporting to Act on behalf of the Customer ("PPTA"):

Person Purporting to Act on behalf of the Customer is a person appointed to act on behalf of the entity to establish banking relationships, or may be authorised to give instructions to conduct various activities through the account or the business relationship established. Examples of PPTA include:

- Person who act on behalf of the entity to establish business relationships with the Bank
- Authorised Signatories (AS) with sole authority over an account or with unlimited authority in moving funds in and out to third party accounts

Key Controller:

Key Controller is an individual or legal entity which has the right to exercise or actually exercises significant influence over the policy or business strategy, or holds the right, directly or indirectly, to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors of the Board. Key Controllers include:

- Director who exercise direct control over the Company (senior executive activities)
- Managing Director
- Local Branch Manager (for Branches)
- Partner exercising substantial influence over the day-to-day management of the business
- Nominees
- The person holds, directly or indirectly, the right to appoint or remove a majority of the board of directors of the company or the CEO
- Chairman of the Board
- Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
- Sole Director
- Sole Authorised Signatory per account
- The person on whose behalf the Nominee entity is working for
- Chief Financial Officer (CFO)
- Managing Partner
- Powers of Attorney

Direct Appointee:

Direct Appointee is an individual authorised under an executed instrument of the entity to act on its behalf with respect to the banking relationship, and to appoint authorised signatories or delegate authority to others to represent the business in limited circumstances, e.g. the Company secretary. Direct Appointee is typically appointed by the Board of Directors or Key Controllers.
