

HSBC's Environmental, Social, and Governance Webinars Terms and Conditions

1. During 17 May 2022 to 16 November 2023, a customer may attend HSBC's Environmental, Social, and Governance ("ESG") webinars ("Event(s)") on topics relating to ESG, without charge, provided that HSBC maintains the final decision in all details and arrangements of such Events (which are subject to change from time to time at HSBC's sole and absolute discretion) and the attendance of such Events are subject to availability. The term "customer" in these terms and conditions has the same definition as defined in the HSBC's "GBA Sustainability Fund" Promotion General Terms and Conditions.
2. Any information provided at or in connection with the Events is for general information only and any examples given are for the purposes of illustration only. The Events do not constitute an offer to sell, or solicitation of investment business or an offer to buy any financial services and/or products, nor a recommendation with respect to such investment business, financial services and/products. The Events do not constitute an offer or solicitation for, or advice or recommendation that customer to purchase from or otherwise enter into any transaction with HSBC or any member of the HSBC Group. "HSBC Group" means HSBC Holdings plc and its subsidiaries and affiliates from time to time.
3. The Events do not constitute and should not be considered as investment, financial, legal, tax, accounting, regulatory, professional and/or other advice. HSBC makes no representation or warranty (expressed or implied) of any nature, nor accepts any liability or responsibility with respect to the completeness or accuracy or reliability of any information, findings, projections, representations or warranties (expressed or implied) in, or omitted from, the materials distributed and/or the content of the Events. Under no circumstances will HSBC be liable for any loss or damage arising from the use of or reliance on, any opinion, advice, information or statement made at or in connection with the Events, by the customers, the recipients or any third parties.
4. Customer should not rely on the content or information provided at the Events in making any decisions and customer should make its own independent appraisal of and investigations into the content and information described in the Events. Before customer makes any decision or takes any action that might affect customer or customer's business, customer should consult with suitably qualified professional advisers to obtain the appropriate financial, legal, accounting, tax and/or other advice.
5. A customer will not be eligible for or entitled to attend the Events if it is unable to meet its payment obligations or comply with any of the terms of its agreements with HSBC.
6. HSBC reserves the right to revise these terms and conditions and/or postpone, suspend or terminate any of the offer at any time without prior notice. HSBC accepts no liability for any such change, postponement, suspension or termination, and has the final decision on all matters and disputes arising out of the offer.
7. Please also refer to the HSBC "GBA Sustainability Fund" Promotion General Terms and Conditions ("General Terms and Conditions") for details. Unless defined differently herein, all terms defined in the General Terms and Conditions have the same meaning in these terms and conditions.
8. In the event of any discrepancy or inconsistency between the English version and the Chinese version of these terms and conditions, the English version shall apply and prevail.
